COURSE EVALUATION

Thank you for taking the time to complete the following evaluation. Your responses are carefully considered when designing future courses.

Anesthetic Considerations for Electroconvulsive Therapy – A Team Approach
Carol E. Rose, MD

Knowledge of presenter

Excellent | Good | Satisfactory | Poor | Not Applicable
---|---|---|---|---

Quality of Presentation

Excellent | Good | Satisfactory | Poor | Not Applicable
---|---|---|---|---

Visual Aids

Excellent | Good | Satisfactory | Poor | Not Applicable
---|---|---|---|---

Did this session meet the following objectives?

Discuss the anesthesia evaluation and management of the patient having a series of ECT treatments  ○ Yes □ No
Identify the possible complications a patient may experience during or after an ECT treatment  ○ Yes □ No
Identify the causes of and treatment for changes in vital signs during and after ECT  ○ Yes □ No
Discuss the psychiatry/anesthesiology team approach to caring for the ECT patient  ○ Yes □ No

Did the faculty disclose whether or not he/she has any potential conflict of interest?  ○ Yes □ No
Did the speaker identify research work done on today’s topic?  ○ Yes □ No
Was this session useful to your practice?  ○ Yes □ No

Based on the information that you have learned today will you change or do anything differently in your practice?  ○ Yes □ No

If yes, what?

Comments/Suggestions:

---

Signature

Date

Please Fax completed document to:
Jill Senior, Meeting Manager
(717) 558-7841